

Home » Featured, Food, Food ME Africa, Middle East and Africa, Wine ME Africa

Burgundy, Beirut, Lebanon

[admin](http://travelmodus.com/author/admin/ "Posts by admin") on 10/09/2010 <#respond>

Located inside the Saifi village Burgundy wine bar and restaurant, is beautifully decorated. Hanging near wooden beams that slice through a wire mesh covering the ceiling, the light objects are made up of conical tubes filling a spherical area. Under the lights, a substructure divided into one area for the bar and another for dining. In a similar vein, the entryway is lit by a set of black projectors. The restaurant changes its menu seasonally and has an extensive wine list both French and local. Pamper yourself with an outstanding collection of Burgundy wine along with scrumptious French specialties.

