

BURGUNDY

By RPN | on 14/10 |

752 Gouraud Street
Saifi Village, Beirut
+961 1 999 820

www.burgundybeirut.com

BURGUNDY: "We start where others stop."

Average budget per person: $100

see `gallery_shortcode()` in `wp-includes/media.php`

Founded by 5 wine enthusiasts, Edmond, Henri and Karl Asseily, Youssef Kamel and Ziad Mouawad, BURGUNDY was born in February 2010, with an innate character representing glamour, flair and sophistication like no other wine bar and restaurant. Nestled in the heart of the capital, BURGUNDY was named so as a tribute to the sensational French wines and above all to the BURGUNDY wines that only so many can appreciate and understand.

BURGUNDY is home to a refined clientele seeking some pleasure, provocation, knowledge and superiority. It's a place designed with special attention to detail. The kitchen and especially the infrastructure meet the highest standards and requirements of chefs. The Molteni installed in the basement is hardly the tip of the iceberg. The dining room is illustrated with a pure and elegant style adorned by a spirit of modernity in which metals, wood and concrete mark the right mood.

BURGUNDY is a contrast of modernity and authenticity. At the entrance, a small space is devoted to assist avid wine enthusiasts to the marvelous wine cellar in order to purchase the best wine selections that can be savored in style at home or at our lavish dining room. Then, in this very chic atmosphere, we are pleased to welcome customers seeking gratification, challenge and knowledge.

Thanks to the chefs Brody White and Youssef Akiki and their professional team, the succulent items on the tasting menu couldn't be more successful, unique and attractive. BURGUNDY offers contemporary French cuisine with an international inspiration. Our chef prepares delicious servings prepared with care using exceptional ingredients. Our products are carefully selected with no compromise or exception, and we are constantly on the lookout for new flavors and original ingredients.

Unlike others, we dare to think outside the box. We invite you to do the same and join us in this extraordinary adventure. BURGUNDY portrays a luxurious atmosphere in its simplest ways. Luxury and simplicity combined were never depicted so elegantly than at BURGUNDY.